ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOL DEHU ROAD

Army Public School Dehu Road

Army Public School Dehu Road is one in a chain of APS run by Army Welfare Education Society, New Delhi. It is affiliated to CBSE. Located in the idyllic surroundings of the Dehu Road Cantonment, the school aims to provide quality education at reasonable cost to the wards of Army Personnel.

Vision

At Army Public School Dehu Road, our vision is to instill the values of Respect, Responsibility and Relationship to ensure that students are ready for college, career and life.

Our Mission

1. In the next three years, the school will develop effective communication skill of students in English at all stages by focusing on their language skills and giving them more opportunities in the classroom and outside.
2. In the next two years the school will achieve 100 per cent result in class XII in all streams and also in class X. For this focused attention and involvement from teachers and parents will be sought.
3. In the next five years visible positive growth will be achieved in the personal grooming habits, body language and communication skills in students and educators through Holistic Personality Development training to teachers/students from classes I to XII to boost confidence in students and educators.
4. In the next two years the school will create an e learning environment so that the teacher educators and students can log on to the net and maximize the use of all apps for education.
5. In the next two years at least 25 percent of the children passing out from class XII will be groomed enough for an entry into NDA and TES for a career in the services.
6. In the next five years at least five children per academic session will be able to gain entry to national level sports competitions.
7. By the next one year school will be a 100 per cent inclusive school with proper identification and addressing of differently abled children using special educators.

Admission Procedure
